Carolina Day School students and faculty place a high value on trust and integrity. At the beginning of each school year, every student signs The Honor Pledge to reaffirm their intentions to practice personal and academic honesty at all times. As an applicant to the school, we ask that you thoughtfully read and sign the Honor Pledge. By doing so, you are indicating your support of this very important tradition at Carolina Day.

The Honor Pledge

As a member of the Carolina Day School Upper School community I pledge the following:

My word will be honorable at all times. If asked a question regarding my conduct or school business, I will answer truthfully.

I will respect the property of other community members and will take or use it only with the express permission of the rightful owner.

The academic work that I submit will be mine alone unless outside help is explicitly permitted by the teacher.

I indicate my compliance with this pledge through my signature.
